Call to Order:

Mayor Scott Rose called meeting to order at 7:30 p.m.

Several residents, along with representatives of Weir’s Construction Limited, attended the meeting. A letter was presented to council opposing proposed quarrying activity in the Hodgwater Line area. Mayor Rose informed the audience that council had gathered information and discussed the application by Weir’s Construction Limited to construction a road on the Hodgwater Line property and that councilors were in agreement that the application would be denied.

Motion # 16-087 To deny application by Weirs construction to construct a 300m access road on property located at 148-152 Hodgwater Line for the purpose of quarrying as per authority granted under section 46 of the Town of South River’s Land Use Zoning, Subdivision, and Advertisement Regulations, and significant concerns raised by area residents.
